

Treaty of Diplomatic Relations and Mutual Cooperation Between the Kingdom of Midgard and the Aerican Empire

The Kingdom of Midgard and the Aerican Empire (hereafter – Signatories), both committed to common values and aspiration towards peace, security and prosperity, following the free will of each, enter into following Treaty:

Article 1. Both Signatories recognises each other as legal, constitutional and political entities with full sovereignty and independence.

Article 2. Both Signatories agree to follow non-aggression policy in relation to each other.

Article 3. Both Signatories agree to stay neutral in a conflict other Signatory could have with third parties.

Article 4. In case one Signatory has a conflict with third party or parties, they can call other Signatory in to help resolve conflict peacefully.

Article 5. Signatories agree to diplomatic cooperation which includes the following:

- a. Signatories exchange ambassadors and grant them diplomatic immunity.
- b. Signatories let each other open an embassy in each other territory and conduct diplomatic and consular services freely.
- c. Signatories agree to exchange information as far as it does not impact national interests of any of Signatories negatively.
- d. Signatories agree that other terms of diplomatic cooperation can be negotiated at any time in future.

Article 6. Signatories agree to ensure the safety of each other's citizens that are visiting their territory or residing there temporary or permanently.

Article 7. Signatories agree that this Treaty would be the foundation for following treaties of cooperation in specific areas Signatories agree to cooperate.

Article 8. This Treaty is effective from the day of signing until broken either unilaterally by any of Signatories or upon agreement of both Signatories. Breaking this Treaty comes effective immediately or upon agreed date or terms.

a. Any hostile actions from one Signatory towards other Signatory can be considered breaking of this Treaty with immediate effect, according to the Article 2.

HRM Krisjanis I

The King of Midgard

13.09.2018,

HIM Dr. Eric Lis

Emperor, Aerican Empire